

The sponsor Palta Hass has specially prepared a “country day” for foreign chefs on Friday, January 29th. We will pick you up at the official Hotels (Sheraton Hotel and San Cristobal Tower, Radisson Vitacura Hotel and Regal Pacific Hotel), at 10:30 in the morning and after 1 hour and a half we will arrive to “Desarrollo Agrario” camp, one of the most interesting in Chilean central zone. It has avocado tree plantations in a 380 hectares surface, vine and citrus plantations.

After a tour around some of the plantations, we will arrive to a specially prepared place where a Chilean lunch is going to be served with our most traditional food plus different “Hass” avocados preparations, so you can achieve a total idea of the culinary versatility of this Nasty fruit.

We will have for you folk music, typical traditional dances and some of the Chilean's characteristic games will show you the richness of our country.

By 4:30 PM we will return Santiago, arriving at the hotel at 6 PM approx.

This tour has a limited quota (40 people). We will appreciate if you can register soon, so you can enjoy this beautiful day, which is for free.

For registering, send an e-mail to congresowacs@paltahass.cl with the following data:

For registering, send an e-mail to congresowacs@paltahass.cl with the following data:

- Name
- Country
- E-mail
- Phone number
- Hotel name
- Room number